

Signs by Richard Irland

These signs feature lettering/logos by others. Each sign was an overlay printed on plastic. Sun will degrade and fade the letters.

These signs are routed and the letters painted. Three of them are in a southwestern style. The paint will fade and need to be renewed every few years, but the outline of each letter will remain.