

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE TOWN OF NEW GLARUS LAND PLANNING COMMISSION SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE IMPACT OF ANNEXATIONS UPON INTERPRETATIONS OF CHAPTER 110 (TOWN OF NEW GLARUS SUBDIVISION ORDINANCE)

Sub Committee members: John Ott, Gof Thomson, and Keith Seward

1. In cases where entire “Existing Parcels” or partial “Existing Parcels” are annexed to the Village of New Glarus, the Town loses authority, except The Extra-territorial Zoning and the Town’s participation there-in. See Article I, Chapter 110-1, Authority & Purpose.
  - a. Affidavits or deed restrictions placed upon lands for the benefit of the Town would be of NO future significance after annexation.
  - b. Should reversal of annexations of “Existing Parcels” occur, then Existing parcels shall revert to the definition per existing code at the time of annexation reversal.
  - c. The portion of “Existing Parcel” remaining in the Town shall be re-defined as of the parcel size and shape existing at the time of annexation of the annexed portion.
2. Deed restrictions placed on deeds by private parties shall not be impacted by annexations.
3. The Town Board shall, wherever applicable, require PROTECTIVE COVENANTS as defined in Chapter 110-5 Definitions, Town of New Glarus Land Division and subdivision Code, and §236.293 or take other legal means, on lands located within the Village of New Glarus Extra Territorial Zone that become identified as OPEN SPACE as defined in Chapter 110-5 Definitions, or for other public purposes.
